UPON "ROBERT E. LEE"

Thomas Nelson Page Makes Great Address at Raleigh.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., October 13.—The annual oration, to-night by Thomas Nelson Page, the address by President Robert Bingham, the North Carolina Bibliography for 1908, by Dr. D. H. Hill, and the presentation of the Patterson cup to Captain S. A. Ashe, of Raleigh, as an award for the best North Carolina literary effort during the past year, were especially notable features of the ninth annual session of the State Literary and Historical Association.

Mr. Page's theme was "General Robert E. Lee, the Southerner." He dealt especially with the limited resources of the Southern Confederacy and the masterly manner in which General Lee handled these limited resources in the prosecution of hostilities.

President Bingham gave an original study on "Secession," the paper being aptly characterized "Some Historical Facts All Southerners Should Know."

A resolution was adopted indorsing an appeal for the establishment of an association between all literary clubs and societies of the State.

The association elected Julius Davis, of Wilmington, president; Dr. Benjamin Sled, of Wake Forest; Mrs. Margaret Busbee Shipp and Mrs. E. E. Norritt, of Raleigh, vice-presidents, and re-elected Clarence H. Poe, secretary-treasurer.

LEPER WILL STAY NEAR WASHINGTON

Plan to Return Early to North Carolina Seems to Have Been Given Up.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 13.—That the idea of returning the leper, J. R. Early, to this State from the District of Columbia, where he is under expensive quarantine, has been abandoned, and that there is a probability that the Early family may be reunited through some adjustment by the District Board of Health, is the news brought here by Dr. R. H. Lewis, secretary of the North Carolina Board of Health, who has been in Washington attending the tuberculosis congress, and who visited Early and investigated the conditions. He found that the District authorities are providing admirably for the leper and looking after Mrs. Early and the baby with a most commendable degree of care. The authorities are now, he says, considering favorably the idea of moving Early from his tent to the town apartments occupied by Mrs. Early, and quarantining him there.

Rev. Thomas Dixon, Sr., of Cleveland county, father of Thomas Dixon, author and playwright, is here for the week with his daughter, Dr. Della Dixon Carrol, one of the most successful practicing physicians of Raleigh, and will see for the first time the presentation of "The Traitor" in the academy here Friday night with his son, the author, in the leading role.

The Rev. Mr. Dixon is eighty years old, and has been pastor of one Baptist Church in Cleveland, New Prospect, for sixty years, the most remarkable record for pastoral tenure on record hereabouts.

E. B. Barbee, one of Raleigh's most prominent business men, was brought here this morning on a special train from Zebulon, a booming young town, sixteen miles away, on the Norfolk and Southern, very seriously, if not fatally, cut. He was attacked last night by J. P. Underwood, of that place, and formerly of Benson, where he kept a bar-room.

Mr. Barbee has extensive real estate interests at Zebulon, and the difficulty grew out of a dispute as to the price at which Barbee had offered certain property to Underwood.

News Gathered from Southside

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

The principal business transacted by the Board of Aldermen last night was an ordinance adopted and recommended for concurrence by the Council, granting a lease of the old Lewis Frank & Sons Shirt Factory to A. H. Schwartz for an annual rental to the city of $513.44.

Besides the rent, the lessee is required to pay all taxes and to carry a $10,000 insurance policy on the building. The lease is for three years.

In order to concur in this ordinance, a special meeting of the City Assembly will probably be called. Mr. Schwartz will conduct a business under the style of the "Manchester Basket, Rattan and Wooden Works."

Last week the Roland Distilling

Company of North Carolina was refused a lease of the building, many churches arraying themselves against the manufacture of ardent spirits in Manchester.

New Mayo Bridge Question.

The Board of Aldermen last night concurred in an ordinance adopted by the Council October 8th, providing that a joint committee from both branches of the Assembly be appointed to confer with the owners of Mayo's Bridge as to the advisability of erecting a new bridge near the site of the present structure.

The Council last Friday night appointed Messrs. Furgusson, Workman and Brown from the Assembly as members of the joint committee, which was completed last night by the appointment of Messrs. Patram and Hooker as members from the board.

This committee of five has been empowered to enlist the services of the City Engineer and to employ an outside engineer to assist them in making a survey and submitting an approximate estimate of cost for the proposed new structure.

The committee is instructed to report with all speed to the Council. The latest development in the Free Bridge situation is the announcement of the fact that, with the exception of its abutment on the Manchester side of the river, the entire bridge lies within the legal limits of the city of Richmond.

This means that Richmond's city line extends to high-water mark on the Chesterfield side.

More Bridge Matters.

The executive committee of the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association has been closed doors at the Lafayette House last night. Much routine business was disposed of.

It was decided that a special session of the entire association be called for next Friday night, when matters pertaining to the proposed new bridge to be erected near the site of the present Mayo's Bridge will be considered.

To Hurry Up Post-Office.

The joint committee on the post-office situation, selected from the City Council and the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association, will leave for Washington this morning for an audience with the Secretary of the Treasury in an endeavor to hasten the erection of the new Federal building in this city. Upon arrival in Washington the committee will go to the Treasury Department, where a conference with the Secretary of the Treasury has been arranged.

The appropriation for the new post-office was made three years ago, and the site was purchased a year later, but beyond the appropriation and the selection and purchase of a site, no other progress has been made. It is expected that the visit of the joint committee to-day will result in hastening the government in placing a post-office in Manchester.

The visiting committee is composed of the following members: From the Council—Messrs. Patram, Campbell and Reams; from the Business Men's Association—Messrs. H. Smith, H. Wells, D. L. Toney, George Gary and Clarence Fortune.

Erect Handsome Buildings.

Two building permits were granted J. H. Mindendorf by the Board of Aldermen last night, permitting him to erect two handsome, two-story brick dwellings on Bainbridge Street, between Tenth and Eleventh, to be numbered 1002 and 1005.

Mr. Mindendorf is the proprietor of last granite quarry in Chesterfield county. Contractor A. T. Paxton will build the two residences.

Covers Laid for 150.

The celebration of the fourteenth anniversary of the organization of Lily Council, No. 3, Daughters of Liberty, which was held at the Lafayette House last night, was followed by a banquet, where covers were laid for 150 guests. The tables were decorated with cut flowers, and 575 miniature United States flags helped to render color and brightness to the scene.

A Benefit Performance.

Owing to the serious and protracted illness of J. H. Brown, member of the Manchester Fire Department, the management of the Royal and Wonderland moving picture shows have agreed to run a joint benefit exhibition here next Friday night, the proceeds of which performance will be donated to the sick fireman. Tickets are on sale at the Fire Department and may be procured from police headquarters.

Joseph Brown has been in ill health since last May. The cause is a worthy one, and the attendance at the shows will be large.

Personals and Briefs.

A meeting of the Mothers' Club of Manchester will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the kindergarten rooms of the Fourteenth Street School. All parents are invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Royall will celebrate the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding next Thursday afternoon at their home, "Royall Pines," at Forest Hill. Guests will be received from 4 o'clock until 6.

Joseph Fry, charged with drunkenness, was fined $2.50 and costs yesterday.

Columbus Cowan, a negro, was also in court. He was fined $5 and costs for blocking the car track.

Miss Mary Dickinson, of Staunton, who has been visiting Miss J. D. Patterson, of Monmouth Street, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Shank, of Chula, are guests at the home of Mrs. T. E. Taylor, No. 1311 Perry Street.

Committees have been appointed by the various councils of the Junior Order United American Mechanics of Manchester and Swansboro to celebrate Thanksgiving services in a church to be designated later.

CAROLINE SUPERVISORS.

Bridge Matter and Road Appropriation Before Body.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOWLING GREEN, Va., October 13.—The supervisors held a meeting to-day and passed on a number of accounts against the county. George W. Quarles and R. O. Wortham, who were appointed commissioners on the part of Caroline county to confer with the commissioners of Hanover county about the rebuilding of Fox's Bridge, reported a bid of $1,050, which was rejected by the board.

The commissioners were further instructed to confer with the commissioners of Hanover county about the rebuilding of a bridge of steel, instead of wood; but if they cannot agree, then the commissioners are directed to re-advertise for a wooden bridge.

K. R. Farish was recommended by the board as game warden for Bowling Green District.
